Dane Camp!

Five fun days of Danish culture and language in an atmosphere designed for children ages five through ten. Dane camp takes place Monday, August 4 - Friday, August 8, 2008. We meet at 9:00AM for our exciting days of crafts and activities related to our theme. Each day includes an outing to a nearby park where kids get to learn some Danish sports and games. Our fantastic kitchen helpers serve lunch and a snack daily. Camp ends at 4:00PM each day, except Friday, when a special open house for families extends our day until 5:00PM.

Theme

This year's theme will be Kongehuset/Royal Family. Special crafts, stories and programs will be centered around this royal theme.

Counselors

The camp will be directed by experienced staff and Dane Camp volunteers. They are excited about this year's Dane Camp activities and they can't wait to meet the campers.

Eligibility Requirements

To be eligible to participate in Dane Camp, children should have completed kindergarten, but have not yet attended fifth grade. A few older students will be accepted as senior campers. Please call for details.

Join Us!

Dane Camp is held at the Northwest Danish Foundation Cultural Center, located in the Meridian Office Building at 1833 North 105th Street, in Seattle.
